RAIN AT PALMETTO PARK

TRACK AT CHARLESTON REDUCED TO SLOW CONDITION, BUT GOING REMAINS FIRM,

Chuckles Wins Selling Handicap That Serves as Day's Feature After Coming In for Heavy Backing.

Charleston, S. C., February 6.—Copious rains that fell this morning and threatening weather later failed to reduce the usual large attendance at Palmetto Park for ladies' day. The gentler sex were unmindful of the adverse conditions and were out in full force. The track was somewhat slow, but the going remained firm and eventy balanced fields furnished interesting sport. The most extensively backed winner of the afternoon was Chuckles in the feature race, a handicap at seven furlongs, in spite of having a poor pilot, Chuckles was backed down from a high price of even money to 1 to 2. He never left the outcome seriously in doubt after assuming the lead at the half mile ground, for be only cantered during the rest of the trip and finished five lengths in advance of the poorty handled Grosvenor. Frince Ahmed, the extreme outsider, beat the others for third place.

The third race furnished a side incident when Toy, ridden by W. Obert, threw that rider over the inside fence shortly after leaving the paddock on the way to the post, and proceeded to circle the course fider Obert remounted him and brought him back to the post. He was an extensively supported second choice to Stentor, which had receded from an opening of 3 to 5 to 9 to 10 at post time. Toy's runaway caused Stentor and Miss Velma to be backed at the last unment. The latter showed the most speed during the running and held Stentor safe all the way.

Kewpie, which had been racing indifferently under L. Martin's handling, ran in vastly improved form for Connelly and won well in hand from Jack Hanoling and Lad. Ermagarde, which had beaten Kewpie in a former start, failed to stay after going the first quarter and finished far back.

The mile and an eighth dash which closed the card went to Effendi, which was in a running mood this afternoon and showed the way for the entire trip. Mycenae, the favorite, finished second. The winner changed owners after the race, H. G. Bedwell eccurring him on his bid of $600, an advance of $300 over his entered price.

Joseph McLennan was taken suddenly ill just after the racing began and L. A. Cassidy served as clerk of the scales this afternoon.

George W. Langdon received a message this afternoon that William Carmody had arrived safely at the home of his brother in Auburn, N. Y. Carmody was taken sick here about a month ago with hemorphages and was taken north for the benefit of his health.

The new layers who cut in this afternoon included Edward Austin. Gus Blume and H. Knock. There were thirteen in line.

Jockey H. Sumter was forced to cancel his engagements this afternoon on account of illness. The lad is suffering with an attack of bronchitis. While being galloped this morning the filly Big Dipper bolted into the outside fence and injured her shoulder.

ENGLAND'S GREATEST MODERN TRAINERS.

It is pleasing to be able to wish another prosperous year to such backbones of their profession as Jinn Ryan, Dick Marsh, C. Archer, Joe Cannon, Alfred Hayhoe, T. Leader, W. A. Jarvis, A. B. Sadler, Fred. Webb. M. Gurry, Percy Peck and Tom Jennings, and though, Ryan, Archer and Hayhoe have retired, they have interest in their sons or nephews, and they are links with the past that we can ill spare. Ryan is the senior among them all, but he was able to get to the course to see the big Autumn Handleaps and the Middle Park Plate, though the good old chap found some degree of sadness in the disappearance of his old friends, of whom nearly all land gone. I am not quite sure which began trainig first of he or Dick Marsh, but I think they both started in the same year, Ryan coming from Gullane, the Scottish home of the Dawsons and Waughs, to Green Lodge, and Marsh to Lordship Farm, in 1872. Green Lodge in those days was only a modest training home, with old-fashioned house and boxes; but his early success with the wonderful Springfield attracted a larger stad, and so the present luxurious establishment came to be built. It was in 1873 that Springfield was foaled, and though Ryan had a lot of good ones through his hands, he never trained a better. In addition to his flat racers, Ryan always had some of the highest class steeplechasers and hurdle racers, and with Captain Machell and Marsh with strong stables also, we used to win Grand Nationais as well as many other big races over a country.

Before Marsh started training he was among the best jockeys on the flat, and among other races rode the winner of the New Stakes at Ascot. But across country he was one of the gamest of the game, and in those days he would ride anything anywhere, and broken bones and knock-outs he expected more often than not. Like Green Lodge, the Lordship Farm was little more than a miniature farm house, with a thatch roof, occupied previously by Bob Musk, who was well known in racing and coursing circles, and here in 1872 Marsh started training f

What a borse may do in racing when a two-verr-old and what it may afterwards do when a three-year old are frequently wastly different things. The comparative form at the two ages of Helies and Hawthen are recent instances in point. But on the whole experience points to the conclusion that it is also discussed in the contract of the

RACING IS FORMFUL AND INTERESTING, DE-SPITE DISAGREEABLE CONDITIONS.

Well Backed Contestant in Two-Year-Old Race 15 Victim of Bad Luck-James Butler Is Distinguished Arrival.

El Paso, Tex., February 6.—A high wind made it disagreeable at the Juarez course this afternoon. The attendance remained good, as it was ladies' day. The race loving members of the fair sex always accept the invitations of the Jockey Club Juarez in goodly numbers.

Ine attendance remained good, as it was ladies' day. The race loving members of the fair sex always accept the invitations of the Jockey Club Juarez in goodly numbers.

The racing, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions, was up to the usual standard. The first race was marred by an accident to jockey J. Howard, who had the mount on Maznik, from the stable that Henry McDaniel left here in charge of trainer W. Schofield. Maznik was the medlum of heavy support, being backed from 3 to 1 to even money at post time. The youngster broke well, but only ran a short distance when Fred T. boilted from the middle of the track to the inside, hitting Effe May, which in turn bumped into Nelle U. Maznik, which was running close to the rail, was thrown against if with such force that Howard's feet was badly crushed. The horse escaped injury.

Favorties and long priced horses divided the card. James Butler, accompanied by his son James, arrived late this afternoon from New York. They will remain for some time and expect to see some good racing by the horses that Mr. Butler has here in charge of Trainer John Lowe. Mr. Butler says that the two-year-olds that are in charge of trainer R. C. Benson at New York will probably be as good as any that will race in the east the coming summer.

Jockey Claver was suspended for five days by the stewards for rough riding in the fifth race. He had the mount on Moralight.

B. A. Jones, of Parnell, Mo., has purchased the seven-year-old stallion Waido for $750 and the horse will be shipped forthwith to the Jones farm.

Superintendent Frank Keegan began today to "cent up" the Juarez track, as it was becoming too hard. He had two California harrows at work, and in the course of a few days expects to have the going in perfect condition.

SEEKS $10,000 FROM J. B. JOEL.

London, Eng., February 6.—Prince Palatine, which scored a victory over August Belmont's Tracery for the Ascot Gold Cup this year, was the subject of a law action yesterday. Capt. Thomas Henry Brownsought to recover from J. B. Joel $10,000 commission alleged to be due him in connection with the purchase of the horse by Mr. Joel for $200,000. For the defense it was stated that Mr. Joel thought Capt. Browne was acting for Mr. Pilkington, the horse's original owner, and would get his commission from him.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The citizens of Hot Springs, Ark., have raised one-half of the $20,000 racing fund that L. A. Cella imposed as one of the conditions under which they might have the use of the Oaklawn track. If the attempt to have a spring meeting fails, renewed efforts will be made to revive racing at Hot Springs later in the year.
